Table 5 - TRANSFER STUDENTS FROM OTHER UNIVERSITIES
Applicants to any SArD major entering at the first year level with less than 24 transferable credits	Applicants will be considered as NEW STUDENTS and SArD Admission Criteria for New Student [general and major specific] will be applied. Refer to Table 1.		All applicants to SArD should have obtained at their previous university a cumulative GPA or equivalent average of ≥ 2.5 [≥75/100]
Applicants to any SArD major coming from a non SArD program with more than 24 transferable credits	Applicants will be studied on a case by case - Information on school/college grades, diplomas or others would be required for evaluation.	Applicants may be given remedial courses	All applicants to SArD should have obtained at their previous university a cumulative GPA or equivalent average of ≥2.5 [≥75/100]
Applicants to any SArD major at an upper level coming from a design/art program with a minimum 24 transferable credits	Applicants will be studied on a case by case - Information on school/college grades, diplomas or others would be required for evaluation. Each applicant will be required to submit an A-4 size portfolio.	Applicants may be given remedial courses or Foundation Design courses as an admission requirement	All applicants to SArD should have obtained at their previous university a cumulative GPA or equivalent average of ≥2.5 [≥75/100]